

Seeking licensed teacher for math instruction in a private program for children with cerebral palsy and other motor disorders. Students range in age from elementary through middle school. Job would require planning, teaching and preparing progress reports. Teacher would work with primary classroom instructor as well as one-to-one aide assigned to each student.

Teaching position would be between 15 and 20 hours per week. Program observes State Academic Standards and 180 days of school.

Please send resume and experience to: Jackson Center for Conductive Education, 802 N. Samuel Moore Parkway, Mooresville, IN 46158, or to contact@thejacksoncenter.org. To learn more about the Jackson Center visit thejacksoncenter.org.